

South-east Asian peatlands are burning away.

Support and join the International Mire Conservation Group

The IMCG mission is to maintain the diversity of mires and peatlands all over the world by conserving the full range of their natural functions and biodiversity; and by ensuring their wise and sustainable use.

For more information visit www.imcg.net
or contact
info@imcg.net